

Hi. I'm wondering if anyone can help me find a couple of things, related to the Resident Declaration.

Specifically, I'm looking for:

1. The "Resident Declaration" that I signed. I'm not sure what document(s) my electronic signature has been applied applied to. Where can I find the actual Resident Declaration document bearing my name and signature?
2. The "Bilateral Social Compact Agreement" that the registrar says I have signed and agreed to with my electronic signature on the Resident Declaration Form. I have found multiple documents bearing that name/description. Which specific compact have I signed via the Resident Declaration Form.
3. Any and all additional documents where my electronic signature has been applied from the Resident Declaration Form.

I asked the registrar for this information and was asked to to direct my inquiries here.

I never received copies of any of the documents that I am told were executed with my signature.

How do I obtain these?

Thank you in advance!

I sent my inquiry to the registrar's general mailbox, registrar@theseunitedstatesofamerica.country and received a response from that same mailbox, signed by Naomi Spears. The registrar's/Naomi's reply to me was, "Please review the initial email communication and direct your inquiry concerning the Bilateral Social Compact Agreement to one of the available Telegram chats."

I just want to read what I have signed. I assumed the registrar would be the appropriate venue for that request, as you have just confirmed.

I'm not sure how to tell her she is wrong in an appropriate and respectful manner.

How can I contact Tom as you have recommended? Is there an alternate email address from what I mentioned above?

Thank you John. Very much appreciated!

So just to be absolutely clear, when the registrar said to me...

"As a declared Resident, you have signed (agreed to) the Bilateral Social Compact Agreement, so your duties and obligations have been laid out, and are further explained via the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the Law of Nations."

...she is referring to the social compact that you just linked?

Also, is there an actual document somewhere called "Resident Declaration" that I have signed electronically? I'm still a bit unclear about that as I cannot find it anywhere.

Please check your email. Suggesting that you read before signing so that you are not causing confusion. Also, there are links within this chat, and one of them leads to the Bilateral Social Compact Agreement. Select the chat name and go to links, and you will see it there. The same link is included in the most recent email response to you. Looking forward to seeing you on Monday evenings during the American National assembly (ANa) and at the next Constitution Q&A discussion 👍
